Know Too Much

Lucas crossed his arms and looked at Max Mayfield. He tried to look tough too. Even though what with the fact that he was thirteen, and that he was a pretty cinnamon roll type of person too, it didn't really work too well.

"I can't believe you live nearby and you won't let anyone come to your place." He said. That's what all of this was about.

Max rose an eyebrow.

"You people already know like, way too much about me."

Lucas threw up his hands. This wasn't happening, not like this. "I know exactly three facts about you, and one of them is that you won't let any of us come to your place."

He had a point. But Max didn't think so.
